The Organizer of the Cincinnati Convention

The telegraph recently apprised us of a visit of Senator Tipton [illegible] in the interest of [illegible] Tipton is a Senator who has lost his patronage at Washington and [illegible] We subjoin some of the leading parts of the report of an interview between him and a reporter of the Cincinnati [illegible] Tipton said

Yes I thought it was about time I should be getting out home to see how things are looking there and Trumbull and Fenton insisted that I should stop here for a day and see how things were looking in regard to the Convention

When asked what he thought of the prospects of the Convention the doughty Tipton thought it would be a success that we at Washington were not at all discouraged and had no idea of backing down from the fight

Reporter Is it true as stated that Mr Sumner will preside?

Mr Tipton. I am not advised certainly about that, but I hope he will. The people here ought to urge him to come by all means. It would help to draw a big crowd

Rep What do you think will be the result of the Convention?

Mr Tipton I think the indications are that Judge Davis will be the nominee. And he is a strong man every way—an honest farmer like man who comes nearer to Lincoln in his characteristics than any man I know

Rep Will Nebraska be well represented in the Convention?

Mr Tipton I do not know yet. A few weeks ago I thought that it would be left perhaps to but one man to represent that State. Later letters advise me that Chief Justice Mason of Nebraska and our deposed Governor Butler are both heartily in sympathy with the movement. The latter worked against [illegible] the Democratic ticket in opposition [illegible] and helped to impeach [illegible] think I would ever be found [illegible] in the same political traces with him. But he hates the Republican party of Nebraska more than he likes Grant and that is his motive for helping the Liberal movement

Considering that this deposed Governor Butler was removed from office by a Republican Legislature for malfeasance and thievery of the most atrocious character the Liberal Republicans are to be congratulated on having secured so [illegible] respectable an adherent Rep What is Senator [illegible] doing in this movement?

Mr T Well he is in sympathy with us in the Senate and is as fierce as anybody to denounce caucus dictation and Senatorial oppression but he has never said yet that he would support the nominees here in opposition to the Philadelphia Convention. We count on him though as one of our friends

Rep What is your strength in the House?

Mr Tipton There are about twenty five leading and [illegible] of that body that are in sympathy with us although [illegible] just what to do

Rep Such as [illegible]

Mr Tipton Well there's Garfield of Ohio and Dawes of Massachusetts, that are understood to be with us in sentiment and anxious to see something done. I might name others of the same class of men. They are afraid to speak out but nevertheless we know they are with us

As Garfield and Dawes have both emphatically denied any sympathy with the Cincinnati movement [illegible] infer that Mr Tipton [illegible] about the other twenty [illegible]

Rep Will [illegible] that Judge Trumbull [illegible] the [illegible] Convention notwithstanding Gen Grant is not his personal choice

Mr Tipton Judge Trumbull never said any such thing. He is heart and soul for the Cincinnati Convention and will support its nominees

This statement is singularly at variance with Trumbull's [illegible] declaration [illegible] the Senate that [illegible]

A case is to be tried in Clackamas county to test the legal liability of the Railroad Company to pay for stock which may be killed by being run over by the cars

Some unsophisticated thief broke into the dwelling of an editor at Albany the other night. The exchange from which we learn this don't say that the burglar took anything

The house of Mr S F Marks in the southern end of Clackamas county was destroyed by fire on the [illegible]. The family saved but very little of their household goods. Loss about $1 000

The district school at Albany which has been under the management of M C George, assisted by Miss Belle Gird, closed last week after a most successful and satisfactory winter's term.

The main driving belt in the factory at Oregon City caught fire last Saturday and was so badly burnt as to cause the stoppage of the factory for several hours for repairs. No other damage was done

At the last term of the County Court of Clackamas county George [illegible] Gage supervisor of road district No 25 was ordered to forthwith open so much of the Aurora and Oswego road as lies in his district not already opened

At the school meeting held at Albany last Monday Mr S Montgomery was elected Director and Mr A N Arnold Clerk. By vote a tax of $2 000 will be levied on property in the district for the support of free schools during the year

Farm hands and farm horses are in brisk demand in Washington county. Our correspondent says he is getting tired of being called up in the night to answer the question Do you know who has a pair of horses to sell [illegible] Where can I get some help?

The Democrat at Albany says Every farmer —and any other man whom he can secure—is busily engaged in putting in his crops and consequently our streets present somewhat the appearance of that Deserted Village which Goldsmith tells about.

The Linn county Democrat says W H Wallace got a verdict for $450 damages against Smith of Peoria in the Circuit Court last week. Smith had brickbatted Wallace with too much vehemence. Perhaps Smith contested the case on the facts. He should have fought it on political grounds and if he is a Democrat he would probably have succeeded better judging from late proceedings in that county

The Enterprise says two children of Mr Wm Welch living on Mill Creek about sixteen miles from Oregon City were drowned in the mill race near his residence last Sunday. It appears that the two were walking along the bank—one about three years of age and the other five. When the younger fell in dragging the other in after him. Another child saw them fall and ran to the house to give the alarm but [illegible] assistance arrived they were drowned. The sad event has cast a deep gloom over the entire neighborhood

The Yaquina correspondent of the Linn county Democrat The three masted schooner [illegible] lately driven ashore was hauled off Wednesday the 27th ult by the steamer Oneatta. It is thought that she has sustained injuries to the amount of $3 000 or $4 000. The accident seems not to have been in fault of the pilot nor the bar, but the wind dying away she was left at the mercy of the tide which threw her upon the strand. The new steamer built and owned by Mr Kellogg at Yaquina is a model of perfection. Her machinery and timbers are entirely new and she is capable of making 12 miles per hour. She is fitted up with a nice upper cabin and [illegible] accommodations second to no boat on the Wallamet river. Two fisheries are to be established this summer at Yaquina and a livelier time generally is expected than at any previous summer. A daily stage line will be run between Corvallis and Elk City and a tri weekly between Corvallis and Pioneer to be put on about the 1st of May

Nasby Visits the Connecticut Democracy

[From the Toledo Blade]

[illegible] (Conn) March [illegible] 1872

From Connecticut came the Masselonian cry Come over and help us. Ez the committee [illegible] I accepted with alacrity [illegible] Miss [illegible] but I [illegible] Dimocrisy. During the late unpleasantnis which resulted so disastrously to the South the Democrisy uv that State never wavered in the support uv the cause uv Southern rites and after the strugle wuz transferred from the field to the politikal arena, nowhere did we find more stead fast friends. Nowhere wuz ther sich genuine, delitefull hatred uv the nigger—nowhere was there a more earnest opposishun to all the [illegible] wich they so long held us under their [illegible] Then agin the likker wich the Dimocrisy [illegible] is the most sarchin uv any I ever tasted. There is a grip in it—it takes hold uv the center uv life with more vishusness than any I ever got hold uv

I wuz received with enthusiasm for help wuz very much needed ther. They depended on me to infoose suthin like enthusiasm into the campane. I wuz rekested immejitly to attend a meetin uv the Central Committee that I might be instructed in a little detail wich it wuz be necessary to know that I mite adapt myself to the pecoolarities of Connecticut politiks. I spose gentlemen said I in my easy down style then the speech is wich ez a Dimocrat I hev been deliverin fur the past four or five years in all secshuns uv our wunst happy but now distracted country will answer for this State without any material alterashen. Dimocrisy gentlemen is a eternal prinsipple wich, like the everlastin hills kin never change. Ez some uv you may never hev hed the pleasure of heerin that celebrated speech I will giv you a synopsis uv it. After allooin breefly to the grandjer uv the country dwellin more fully on the grandjer uv the partikeler State into wich I happen to be in (wich I assertaine beforehand) I perceed to wunst to a vigerus denunsiashen uv the nigger [illegible]

The Chairman begged me to pause

On general prinsipples said he and ez a rule, I sympathize with our friend in damin the nigger. But it will hardly do in this State at this time to indulge in that most natural demnin. The fact is, Mr Nasby, there is several thousand niggers in Connecticut, and they vote! Dimocrisy can't afford to damn any ideas which votes. Give Mr Nasby a drink!"

I protest agin the nigger—a nashnel Dimocrat pertikelerly a Kentucky Democrat, must perpetually protest agin the nigger but I recognize the sitooashen here and will strugle to adapt myself to it. I will do violence to my Dimocrisy and my feelins and let the nigger alone. But wile I am willin not to abuse him on general principple ez a matter of course I shall oppose with all the power I hev the unholy and uncoustooshnel amendments which emancipated him, and —

"Will Mr. Nasby pardon me," said the Chairman, blandly, "in the platform adoptid by the Dimocrisy uv Connecticut, emancipashen is acceptid ez a fixed fact and—but give Mr Nasby a drink."

I took the drink—a very large one fur in my flurry it wuz necessary and went on

"I spose," sed I, "that ez you hev done this I shel hev to swaller emansipashen—a leetle drap more uv that or whisky ef you please—but it don't matter. I kin at least yoose that porshen uv my speech which denies to em civil rights and the ballot. I kin do this consistently fur, after all, what does emansipashun amount to without civil rites and the ballot, and what—"

May I interrupt you wunst more? interrupted the chairman blander than ever. "The platform adopted by the Dimocrisy uv Connecticut accepts not only the emansipashen uv the nigger but civil rights and the ballot for him—give Nasby a drink, or, by the way set a bottle and glass by him, so that he may help hisself

"I was so staggered by this that I involuntarily put the bottle to my lips instid uv goin thro the formality of pourin it into a glass, and in my dazed condishen held it there until it was nearly exhausted

"Gentlemen" I remarked, after a minit uv profound thought, fur a nashnel Dimocrat you ro askin a great deal, but—but—I m ekal to it. I accept emansipashen civil rites and the ballot. But my speeches will necessarily be short. You hev clipt my rite wing and amputated my left and I hev only the tail to support me. The way you hev the thing fix [illegible] a matter uv coar[illegible] confined to the [illegible] I thank heaven the repoodiashen uv the debt is still left me, and on that I shel dwell

Take another bottle Nasby, said the chairman, more blanderer than ever and permit me to suggest that the platform uv the Dimocrisy uv Connecticut repoodiates the propeshen to repoodiate the nashnel debt with skorn brandin the charge ez a slander, and insists upon its payment principal and interest. Take another drink I beg, Nasby"

Good Lord gasped I in astonishment [illegible] and the payment uv the [illegible] Why gentlemen I mite ez well put on a clean shirt and be a Republican to wunst fur [illegible] I kin see the matter uv clean linen is all we shel differ in. I can't do it—reely I can't. Think uv Kentucky—think uv Southern Injeany and Illinoy—think uv the Irish in Noo York—think uv me!"

The chairman with a smile the blandness uv wich I never saw ekaled pressed me to take one more drink, which I did. He then remarkt that in the present state uv affairs Dimocrisy coodent be expected to be one and the same everywhere. To reach success [illegible] the Postoffices it was compelled to cult vate an elasticity uv perfeckshen which allows it to adapt itself to any kind uv circumstances. It wuz uv necessity one thing in one place and another in another. Jest as the pekoollar pekoolarities uv the people manifisted themselves. Ef the people uv a certain locality wants one perticklar line of policy it is the bizness uv the Dimocrisy to promise it. If another secshen desires a line uv polisy precisely the opposite why the Dimocrisy must promise that also. Sich proceedins will I know make conclushens [illegible] It is [illegible] Nasby [illegible] platform [illegible] when there is a Democrat in the place uv the butcher [illegible] Grant a Dimocratic Congress and Dimocratic Legislachers and sich [illegible] well let the nigger care for herself. The pint now is success. But he resoomed comin to things practikle take another drink

I took it, wich made nearly a gallon that I hed absorbed [illegible] the platform adopted by the convenshun and commenced my work the next evening. My first appintment was [illegible] Dimocrisy are largely in the majority and [illegible] more aggressive than they are wher they are weaker. I held a large meetin and it might hev bin a success but they hed [illegible] the platform and knowed it [illegible] I had it afore me, and opened with a vigerous eulogy uv emancipashun and wuz a followin uv it up insistin that the conferrin uv the ballot on the nigger wuz a most [illegible] proper thing to do, when I wuz greeted with a storm uv hisses

Hist the [illegible] abolishunist [illegible] shrieked [illegible]

"Kill the nigger lover!" shouted a [illegible]

And the chairman uv the meetin a large and muscular man, did deliberately seize me by the coat collar and lead me to the front [illegible] and with [illegible] who fell [illegible] in the most brootal manner [illegible] me that [illegible] I felt [illegible] and sed to me that the [illegible] into the Dimocratic camp, the way I hed dun wuz a bold one but rather resky

I sought out the Dimocrisy the next day and showed em my credenshels. They recognized the signatoors uv the committee and were willin enuff to admit their genooineness, but they insisted that I was either drunk or crazy to talk sich talk at a Dimocratic meetin and advised me to git out uv that ez soon ez convenient

I did it. I shell go back to Kentucky immejitly. I don't like the way things is fixed in Connecticut and I [illegible] When a man sent out [illegible] Committee and talkin from the platform adopted by the Dimocratic Convenshun comes out uv a Democratic meetin one mass uv livid brooses and drencht in goar it is time that suthin be did. Sich things don't happin at the Corners and there I shell go leavin Connecticut to her fate. I hev learned tho, exactly the amount necessary to bring a Kentucky Dimocrat to the level uv his Connecticut brethren. One gallon and perhaps a pint unwatered is the precise quantity

The World asserts that the Democrats look forward to the action of the Cincinnati Convention with mingled solicitude and hope. As to the solicitude there is no doubt that a great deal of it is just now felt in the Democratic camp. The Democrats know that they have not a ghost of a chance of electing a President at candidate of their own and they are therefore exceedingly anxious that the [illegible] headed Republicans shall undertake the work of [illegible] the regular Republican ticket

Aims and Purpose

[illegible] Oregon [illegible]

Among the Republicans of Oregon there is [illegible] sentiment as regards the [illegible] the administration [illegible] the party that will certainly [illegible] continued peace [illegible] and prosperity [illegible] country [illegible] There [illegible] many [illegible] they may depend [illegible] organization [illegible] substantially [illegible] As a party they propose nothing [illegible] they can hope to accomplish But they are led by men who have a personal interest in success They are led by those who want an accommodating Legislature like the last one which will create [illegible] for party favorites and enable party managers [illegible] their [illegible] proceeds of [illegible] the last session

Hence it is that although there is no reason founded on well defined party principles why the Democrats should make an effort in the ensuing election there is a reason why the leaders and managers of the party who profited so much by the legislation of the last session and who hope to profit still more by that of the next should put forth their strongest exertions They will not do it because they have any idea whatever that the principles of their party can be re established throughout the United States for they have no idea of the kind But they will do it because they have schemes of their own to carry out here in Oregon

It is for these reasons and on these grounds that the election in Oregon will be bitterly contested. Those who engineered the profligate legislation of two years ago want another turn at it They trust to have opportunity to complete 'unfinished business This is their aim and for this they will try to rally their party again

A Slanderer Cornered

A series of gross and scandalous charges against the present Secretary of the Navy has been made by Dana, the notorious vilifier of the New York Sun The Secretary, Mr Robeson, promptly demanded of the House Representatives a thorough investigation The House appointed a Committee, and sent the following notice to Dana

> The Committee are now ready to receive any communications that you may desire to make in support of the charges appearing in the New York Sun, of which, you are understood to be the responsible editor, against the Hon Geo M Robeson Secretary of the Navy The Committee will be glad either to have you appear before them or make any statements likely to lead to a full discovery of all the facts or receive information from you or any of your associates in any way most convenient for you The Committee will be ready to subpœna any witness you may name and to give a full hearing on the entire case

Called upon to substantiate his accusations, Dana attempted to dodge the issue by pretending that the Committee was packed in the interest of the Secretary that even the Democrats who were upon the Committee (one of whom was Voorhees of Indiana) were his friends that the Secretary had had time to put the records of his Department out of the way etc, etc —the accuser thus confessing that he could not substantiate his reckless charges This New York Sun is the source whence the defamers of the administration derive most of the materials for their attacks

An official report on the Tammany Court House job has been made to the New York Legislature There has been paid on account of the building the astounding sum of $13,477 178 The known outstanding claims are $242 579 more, together with large additional claims of unknown amounts The building and furniture never actually cost more than $2 000 000 so that through this one job the Tammany Ring stole not less than $12,000 000

The New York Herald hopes that President Grant will give close attention to Mexico and establish a protectorate over it That paper says "He can add no greener laurel to his fame or make any nobler contribution to the civilization of the world " This is much in the style of manifest destiny but President Grant, even if he desired to take this step would probably wait till he was authorized to take it by the people of the United States

It is feared that the Democracy of Oregon will not have the assistance of Gov Grover on the stump this year The reason is that can deliver nothing but demagogical harangues on the Chinaman and his great Chinese question of two years ago is played out The consequence is that the Governor has lost his capital for political mountebanking, and will probably be forced out of business

The Herald is rejoiced to learn that the Republicans have carried Connecticut by only 300 The Republican majority was 300 over all other parties, and nearly 2 000 over the Democratic Considering that the temperance ticket took off 1 500 from the Republican vote this result is a very signal triumph

Joseph R Lewis the Idaho Judge who was kindly resigned out of office by a friend in that Territory was confirmed on the 21st March as Associate Justice of Washington Territory

The wool growers of the country who are now getting twice or thrice the old prices for wool are receiving an illustration of the advantages which a protective tariff brings them

Political Gossip

We take the following from a Washington special to the Chicago Tribune

It is stated to-night that Chief Justice Chase will leave for New York to-morrow for the purpose of urging August Belmont and other prominent Democrats of that locality to hold a straight out party convention notwithstanding the Cincinnati movement Chase is said to regard Judge Davis' prospects for the Democratic nomination with much jealousy

New York influences are at work to secure Horace Greeley's nomination for the Vice Presidency on the liberal Republican ticket

The Cincinnati Convention movers are disgusted at Tipton's reported gabbling at Cincinnati He [illegible] indiscreetly that he [illegible]

[illegible] That Strong [illegible]

[illegible] a [illegible] utterly unworthy the whole batch of [illegible] slanders against the President [illegible] It says [illegible] personal attacks upon his character and motives have broken down [illegible] not time his [illegible] efforts [illegible]

The Democrats as a party that the result of these elections speaks It tells them that as long as they maintain a party organization which has been prostituted for twenty years to every base design of demagogues from Buchanan's scheme to subject Kansas to slavery down to Pendleton's plan for repudiation they can find no [illegible] to the people As long as the main issue is kept before the country whether [illegible] any demagogue [illegible] The [illegible] the Republican party the party whose primary work was to put down its bargaining and to restore principles to their place in [illegible] Only when the traditionary conspiracy which calls itself the Democratic party disappears with all its inveterate trickeries from the political world will the honest people who have so long kept busy contending against its immorality be able to turn their attention entirely to newer but less momentous issues

This is put very strongly But [illegible] to what follows

There is no [illegible] a political party which contains [illegible] Pendleton and Seymour Hoffman and Blair Tilden and Tweed Hancock and Jefferson Davis Chase and Alexander H Stephens Hendricks and Sweeney The organization which keeps such men together is a fraud upon its face It has not a single principle of union and if they join in a convention upon one platform and one set of candidates it is obvious that they are merely blinded by a common desire for power to all that ought to be the essential elements of a political canvass The utter disintegration of the Democratic party is the only means at once of emancipating the people from the dread of its success and of restoring to a healthy and useful public career a large number of worthy and able public men who are now entangled in its organization

Philomath College

To the Editor of The Oregonian

SIR This young and flourishing institution is located six miles west of Corvallis, in Benton county, and is now in the fifth year of its existence The village of Philomath, which has grown up around the school in this brief period contains a population of about one hundred By a provision in the deeds for town lots here, saloons and grogshops are entirely prohibited, hence the community is shielded from their baneful influence But few institutions in our State have acquired so many elements of permanency and prosperity in so short a time as this embryo College This fine, brick college edifice erected at a cost of some twelve thousand dollars and other buildings and improvements are nearly paid for and free from incumbrance An endowment of about eighteen thousand dollars has been secured and is mostly now available and this has all been done by voluntary contributions of the people of Oregon We make no invidious comparisons, for our young State has quite a number of very promising schools, but Philomath takes her place among them holding out many inducements and offering many facilities to the young people of this coast who seek a finished education The winter term of this institution closed March 23 —examination of the classes 22d and 23d—exhibition on the 27th These closing exercises were not only interesting to a large audience in attendance and highly creditable to the school but the examinations especially evinced that the closing term had been one of incessant toil and deep interest to both pupils and instructors Under the able and efficient management of Prof J A Biddle and his accomplished lady this school is enjoying a good degree of prosperity C

PHILOMATH March 30 1871

Serving the Lord in the Livery of the Devil

A good story is told of an amateur agent of the New England Bible Society who adopted a novel way of advancing the cause

The Boston police came into the possession of a circular dated at Malden, Mass signed by Dennis & Co which aroused their suspicion that all was not right It was very ingeniously written so as to awaken prurient curiosity The circular began by informing the recipient that

> We have a book containing 504 pages handsomely bound in imitation of morocco with embossed cover sprinkled edge, a very rich and peculiarly interesting picture for frontispiece executed in the highest style of French art in several colors, etc

Curiosity was still further excited by the information that the book should be read in your own room with the door locked etc, and then it proceeded to say Every bachelor should read it just before retiring to his couch for the night Every married couple should look it over together just before retiring for the night, providing they seek true happiness Unmarried ladies can read the book if they like! Every one should keep it in their trunk or their pocket

Notwithstanding that other books of a like character and size sell for three or four dollars Messrs Dennis & Co believing in the 'large sales and small profits,' propose to forward this volume ' postage pre paid for the small sum of 85 cents The circular spoke of the impossibility of suitably advertising such books in the newspapers and then attempting the old dodge of trying to convince the recipient that some of his 'friends had given his name to Dennis & Co and asked him that the favor might be reciprocated Letters were directed to Dennis & Co, Postoffice Box 101 Malden Mass

Detectives proceeded to Malden and found that box 101 was one of the largest and that the lessee was accustomed to empty it two or three times a week The officers also learned that several months ago O D Lee mailed a large number of letters to various parts of the country and in a little while numerous letters addressed to Dennis & Co began to arrive and were taken by Mr Lee who afterward mailed books to many persons Further investigations showed that Mr Lee was really laboring as an agent of the Bible Society although the society would perhaps object to this method of advertising the New Testament which he forwarded to the numerous correspondents of Dennis & Co in acknowledgment of the 85 cents which each letter undoubtedly contained

Of course no recipient of one of the Testaments could help acknowledging that every bachelor or "any other man" should read it just before retiring to his couch but still it is likely that other feelings than those of devotion must have greeted the discovery of the character of the books and the sight of the Madonna holding the infant Jesus would scarcely have added to his devotion when he sought for a rich and peculiarly interesting picture executed in the highest style of French art

As Mr Lee received many letters and the Testaments delivered for the 85 cents did not cost more than 15 cents he probably made a large sum out of his peculation At the solicitation of the police he promised to give up the business This Yankee trick throws the wooden hams and nutmegs of Connecticut quite into the shade

The mother of Abraham Lincoln was buried on a beautiful hill in the northern part of Spencer county Indiana and the citizens of that county have formed an association and propose to raise money with which to erect a suitable monument at her grave

Utah has a two horse back action self adjusting patent gearing machine for exterminating grasshoppers Those who have tried it prefer the grasshoppers

Personal Sketches in Washington

[illegible]

[illegible] a tremendous one too He told [illegible] while he was in the field he smoked [illegible] all the time but that in civil life, [illegible] the house as he is many hours in [illegible] has been obliged to reduce the [illegible] cigar [illegible]

[illegible] an occasional journey [illegible] side a run across the continent And it is right No matter if partisan [illegible] ridicule him for doing it, it is the [illegible] thing for him to do It brings him into contact with the minds of the people It saves him from the illusions which an incessant stay in Washington is sure to breed Above all it gives to mind and body the relaxation which both need from the torturing strain of Executive duties

It is hard to find fault [illegible] est [illegible]

His [illegible] last year led [illegible] pretty wide discussion of his health habits Some very ridiculous and false things were published on the subject

Mr Colfax has always been a very healthy man He believes in health He has tried to take care of his health He is a jolly and an eloquent advocate of the sanitary value of constant cheerfulness of resistance to bother and worry of the avoidance of personal quarrels of moderation in ambition of living at peace with God and man Moreover he takes all the exercise he can get in [illegible] walking at Washington [illegible] temperate in [illegible] and all his life he has wholly abstained from the use of intoxicating drinks

At a great dinner party here a few years ago where were illustrious Americans and foreign statesmen he declined to take wine A noted Senator himself a little heated exclaimed across the table, half jestingly Colfax dares not drink!

'You are right said Mr Colfax seriously I dare not! That simple answer given with gentle and earnest solemnity was itself an impressive temperance lecture is a prodigy of physical endurance I have it from his own lips that for many years, indeed for nearly his whole life, he has worked fourteen hours a day He has never been a smoker He lives "generously, and, in a very temperate fashion, is a wine drinker In his younger days he was a famous pedestrian, striking off for his dozen miles without the least difficulty He has given all that up He literally takes no exercise Living so heartily, working so laboriously, shut up to his pen and his books for so many hours it is astonishing that he keeps so well But he is a man who will go suddenly when he does go is another interesting figure in the Senate What are his health habits? A glance shows you a noble physical endowment He has a muscular active vital frame, all his movements are quick and vigorous and with proper care he ought to have length of days and great honor As to drinking and smoking, he is a thorough German if we may still say that Germany has any monopoly of those graces I mean, especially that he has a German's faith in beer and a German's ability to flash intellectual light from the midst of dense clouds of tobacco smoke His greatest peril lies in excess of work Such a brain as his can not lie idle, nay it is a despotic member dominating the whole man and trampling on the gospel of rest and sleep Senator Schurz works very late at night even till 1 and 2 o clock For exercise he has a fine plan He has taken a house about two miles from the Capitol, and resolutely walks the whole distance both going and coming

is a man of medium size of wiry frame self possessed and temperate in all things He takes good care of himself especially depending on billiards for exercise For that game he has a passion, and amid the click of ivory balls he eases his mind of the cares of State

How It Feels to Get Hanged

A correspondent of the Paris Gaulois moved by private affliction says he once tried to hang himself but after remaining suspended for some time he was fortunately cut down before life became extinct and has committed to paper a full relation of his adventure Having resolved to put an end to a life which was no longer endurable he drove a nail into the wall of his chamber attached a looped cord thereto stood upon a chair and placed his head in the loop At this critical moment he confesses that he had some notion of taking his head out and getting down from the chair But [illegible] sustained him and he very slowly kicked away the chair The immediately consequent sensation was he states very strange From the soles of his feet to the crown of his head a sort of general mixing up of the fluids of the body ensued Suddenly there flashed before his eyes a sparkling dancing light of a color which he finds it difficult to describe but in which blue and a sombre red predominated Presently the flashing light concentrated at a single focus and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head a compression as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron His hands and feet were full of pins and needles Needles without number seemed to pass out of the ends of his fingers by a process of continued expulsion Then came a terrible snapping at the nape of the neck and then along his entire spine there passed a wriggling [illegible] only to a small serpent [illegible] passage along the vertebræ His last sensation was [illegible] consciousness upon recovering from which he was not unnaturally surprised to find himself still in a world he had been in such pains to quit

[illegible] A farmer sitting up on a barrel with his feet braced against the foreboard of a wagon which unfortunately gave way fell directly down behind the horse on a smart trot [illegible] several hours entirely without pain [illegible] describing the accident

A nursing child was on exhibition some years ago at New Orleans whose head was so enormously distended with water, it was nearly as large as a gallon jug The brain was completely [illegible] the bones being forced apart at all the sutures [illegible] condition it was not much unlike the children of the [illegible] actively conscious

To Drive Rats Away Without Poison

[illegible] plan [illegible] They take a [illegible] with water [illegible] and a little elevation in the middle like an island on which is a place for just one rat to sit The top is covered and has a large balanced valve opening downward on the middle of this valve a piece of fried pork or cheese is tied and when a rat walks out to the cheese the valve [illegible] drops the rat in the water and [illegible] A road is made from a rat hole to the top of the tub [illegible] with cheese [illegible] attract for the rats In the course of a single night some ten twenty or even more rats may go down and if the island was not there they will be found most all alive in the morning quietly swimming around but the provision of the little island saves the trouble of killing them because their egotistic instinct of self preservation causes them to fight for the exclusive possession of the island on which in the morning the strongest rat is found in solitary possession all the others being killed and drowned around him Second the New York plan invented by one of our friends The floor near the rat hole is covered with a thin layer of moist caustic potassa When the rats walk on this it makes their feet sore these they lick with their tongues which makes their mouths sore and the result is that they shun this locality not alone, but appear to tell all the rats in the neighborhood about it, and eventually the house is entirely abandoned by them notwithstanding the houses around may be teeming with rats Third the Dutch method this is said to be used successfully in Holland we have however never tried it A number of rats are left together to themselves in a very large trap or cage without any food whatever their craving hunger will at last cause them to fight and the weakest will be eaten by the others after a short time the fight is renewed and the next weakest is the victim and so it goes on until one strong rat is left When this one has eaten the last remains of the others it is set loose the animal has now acquired such a taste for rat flesh that he is the terror of ratdom going round seeking what rat he may devour In an incredible short time the premises are abandoned by all others which will not come back before the cannibal rat has left or has died

LINCOLN'S STEP MOTHER In the forthcoming life of Abraham Lincoln by Ward H Lamon from the press of J R Osgood & Co is this interesting passage concerning his step-mother who always called him Abe

Mrs Lincoln was never able to speak of Abe's conduct to her without tears In her interview with Mr Herndon when the sands of her life had nearly run out, she spoke with deep emotion of her own son but said she thought that Abe was kinder better truer than the other Even the mother's instinct was lost as she looked back over the long years of poverty and privation in the Indiana film which [illegible] the rigors of her lot and his great heart and giant frame were always at her command

Abe was a poor boy says she and I can say what scarcely one woman a mother can say in a thousand Abe never gave me a cross word or look and never refused in fact or appearance to do anything I requested of him I never gave him a cross word in my life His mind and mine what little I had seemed to run together He was here after he was elected President [At this point the aged speaker turned away to weep and wiping her eyes with her apron went on with the story] He was [illegible] always I think he loved me truly I had a son John who was raised with Abe Both were good boys but I must say both now being dead that Abe was the best boy I ever saw or expected to see I wish I had died when my husband died I did not want Abe to run for President did not want him elected was afraid somehow [illegible] felt it in my heart and when he came down to see me after he was elected President I still felt that something told me that something would befall Abe and that I should see him no more

The Office of THE DAILY AND WEEKLY OREGONIAN is removed to the S E corner of Stark and Front streets

MISTAKEN OF [illegible] We have heard of a row which took place down street some time yesterday the particulars of which do not appear in this paragraph It is made to appear that several fellows of the baser sort doubtless one of the parties in the melee and were ad ministering particular thunder to the individual in question when he managed to break away and ran down street in hot quest of an officer to pro cure the arrest of the assailants Just as he went past the O S N Co s block, who should he en counter but one of the gentlemanly officers connected with the Department of the Columbia The officer was dressed in a semi military suit with buttons of brass but [illegible] and he [illegible] visions of the Metropolitan Police force came spontane ously into the mind of the excited man and naturally enough he associated the military officer with his dim and confused ideas of the Chief of Police or Captain He grasped this supposed officer rudely by the arm and demanded the instant arrest of the other parties Officer in vain endeavored to explain it was of no use he was a policeman and must perform his duty or would be promptly reported to the Commissioners Finding reason of no force the officer raised his cane and threatened to use violence to rid himself of the importunate fellow The last argument prevailed and he dropped to the rear mentally anathematising the "cussed officers who wouldn't do their duty" The officer wonders how it came about that he was mistaken for one of them police fellows

ROBBERY AT WALLA WALLA —From authentic sources we learn that an extensive robbery was committed in the County Treasurer s office at Walla Walla on Wednesday night As usual on the night in question Mr A Kieger retired to his bed and left his trowsers at the foot of the bed. In the pocket was a bunch of keys among which was the key to the Treasurer s safe Some time during the night his room was entered by some unknown person or persons and the pants keys and all taken away He was not made aware of his loss until the following morning The burglar was evidently acquainted with the room, as he made a straight shot for his goers and Effecting an entrance after some trouble he proceeded to help himself to the contents of the safe. About $20 000 in county and Territorial bonds and coin was taken At last accounts no clue to the perpetrators The carelessness of the Treasurer in leaving his keys exposed is cer tainly a reprehensible act and the whole pro ceeding sounds strangely like the same old story" robberies to cover up official delinquencies

OPEN TO PROSPER —Once upon a time (a few days since) a young and blossoming couple who reside in the Forks of the Santiam concluded that double cussedness was preferable to single blessedness, and accordingly cleaved to each other and were made one Now the lo quacious fellow who runs the Albany Democrat joint Mart. Brown discourseth thusly on the event "May their pathway be strewn with bright flowers, a carpet of daisies bloom beneath their feet, and many tender buds unfold their delicate petals to adorn the family circle and cheer with their fragrance and beauty the [illegible] of life's declining years" The bride groom whose father resides in Portland—and the other [illegible] ber of the firm assuredly ought to prosper after such a boost as the above It would be a great pity for either to die or [illegible], and spoil all the gentle romance of the [illegible] programme

UMPQUA RIVER.—Major Robert has just re turned from the Umpqua From him we learn the [illegible] Enterprise did not ascend the rapids [illegible] Roseburg and Gardner This was on account of no direct attempt to accomplish that object being made To succeed it would have re quired the combined efforts of twenty five men [illegible] the steamer was deficient in the proper [illegible] for being taken with any degree of safety, over the difficult rapids No advantage could be taken of the eddies, owing to the tor tuity of the channel and the force and rapidity of the current Though the Directors of the [illegible] had placed the steamer at the disposal of Major Robert, to get her up again a majority of the [illegible] holders signed a protest against the attempt being made

[illegible] SCHOOL LIBRARY —While Bishop [illegible] was in the East he obtained eight hun dred [illegible] worth of books for the Library of the [illegible] Scott Grammar and Divinity School, which, with other books previously procured, makes already quite a respectable library It is [illegible] to add to it year by year till it shall have a collection of books worthy a first class school Several hundred dollars were also spent in the purchase of astronomical philosophical and [illegible] apparatus, for this school and St Helen's Hall These are now on their way here and are already due and when received will be very valuable additions to the working facilities of these large schools. So says the Oregon [illegible]

NEW BOOKS —The Portland Library has been [illegible] with the following valuable works

Mrs. E. Russell—Gypsies of Danes Dyke
[illegible]
Mr. C. F. Keeton—Ure s Dictionary of Art [illegible] and Mines 2 volumes
Dana's System of Mineralogy
D [illegible]'s Essays on Morality
Mr. G. L. Hagberg—Kerl Handbuch der Met [illegible] Huttenkunde 4 Bande
Mr. J E Sayers—Count of Monte Cristo

FERRY ON U STREET —The Kate Kidd has [illegible] the old ferry at the foot of Stark street, and the latter is soon to be placed on the ways for needful repairs The intention at pres ent is to place her when overhauled on the new ferry line at the foot of U street This will be done as soon as the work is completed on the boat and the use of the streets on each side can be [illegible]. Persons residing in the upper por tion of the city can expect ferry accommodations on and after the 1st of May

MEMORIAL WINDOW —We learn from the [illegible] that the ladies of Trinity parish have [illegible] to provide their new Church with a [illegible] chancel window which is to be a me morial of Bishop Scott This is surely a most [illegible] undertaking and one which we hope will be entirely successful We understand that it is their intention to raise $500 for this pur pose

FROM OLYMPIA.—Joseph Sloan who went over to Olympia a short time ago with a requisition from Gov Grover to take into custody the man McCormick returned on Thursday evening hav ing in charge the prisoner McCormick was taken to Oregon City yesterday morning and placed in jail to await the action of the grand jury. He will be arraigned for the murder of an Indian

LIGHT HOUSE WORK —We are informed by Major Robert that the work on the new light house at Cape Foulweather will commence about the 1st of May A new addition to the light house at Cape Disappointment will be built some time during the coming summer The design for this work has been prepared submitted and ac cepted by Charles B Talbot of this city

FRUIT CROPS —From [illegible] in Washington county are reported [illegible] promising pros pects for an abundant yield Most all the ear [illegible] peach and cherry trees are in full bloom It is apprehended however that the coming spring frosts may seriously interfere with the pros pects.

FILLING UP —Dirt is being carried away from the east side depot and scattered along Second street in East Portland at a rate which promises to change very materially the aspect of the low land through which that street extends during the [illegible] season

EXPECTED SOON —A letter was received from Dr A M L [illegible] a few days [illegible] man here He was in New York at the time the letter was written and contemplated start ing homeward about the first of next month

MARRIAGES —Since January [illegible] thirty four marriage licenses have been issued from the County Clerk s office This will average a frac tion over eleven per month or about 140 in a year

SICKNESS —An unusual amount of sickness is reported as prevailing in the vicinity adjacent to East Portland Typhoid and bilious fevers [illegible] pear [illegible]

IN MEMORIAM.

At a special meeting of the Trustees of the Congregation Beth Israel held on Wednesday evening April 3 1872 at the Vestry room the following preamble and resolutions were unani mously adopted

WHEREAS It has pleased Almighty God the great dispenser of events in his inscrutable wis dom to remove from a sphere of usefulness from the field of his incessant labor in behalf of Juda ism from a circle of warm and devoted friends, and from the bosom of an affectionate family our late beloved Secretary Louis Goodman whose exertions in behalf of this Congregation have se cured for him the admiration and love of its mem bers and whereas the demise of our late Secre tary has detached a link from the golden chain which bound him to us by the ties of warm and sincere friendship leaving as a perpetual example to us the record of a useful life replete with deeds of benevolence and charity therefore, be it

Resolved As in duty bound we bow with res ignation and deep humility to the will of Him who doeth all things well and regard this dis pensation of Providence as a reminder to us that in the midst of life we are in death and none knoweth what a day may bring forth

Resolved That we deeply lament the loss sus tained by this Congregation in the death of our late Secretary Louis Goodman and mourn with unfeigned sorrow the great bereavement which has deprived us of a true and sincere friend leaving a void in our midst which cannot soon be so well or so worthily filled

Resolved That the Trustees of the Congrega tion Beth Israel tender their sincere sympathy to the widow and family of our late Secretary and while condoling with them on their irre coverable loss may the balm of God s consolation heal their wounds of affliction and they be com forted by him

Resolved That the foregoing resolutions be en tered in full upon the minutes a copy thereof presented to the bereaved family and published in all the daily papers and the Jewish [illegible]

France, Germany and England

From the Philadelphia Press

There can be no mistake about it France is a great country with remarkable [illegible] ative powers Already a great portion of her debt to Germany has been paid and there is now an agreement that the payment of the last instalment of a half milliard francs shall be made in advance on condition that five per cent discount be allowed thereby saving France $4 000 000 Inasmuch as Germany has exacted interest she consents to allow discount Here then is the account of which Germany has received for indemnity and interest—

Four half milliards, or	$400 000 000
Interest	[illegible] 500 000
	$4[illegible] 500 000
Less value of Alsace and Lorraine railways	[illegible]
Making a total	[illegible]

paid in cash within less than a twelve month In addition France must have paid a considerable sum to Germany for the maintenance of German troops in France—the amount estimated for that purpose by the rectification budget of 1871 being $15 000 000 There will not be any further indemnity instalment due by France until March 1873 It is believed by some monetary authorities that the recent payment in advance is to augment the credit of France in the money market, as a new loan may be required However that may be undoubtedly France has done wonders in raising money since the capture of Paris by the Germans

Meanwhile the desirable object of continued peace seems uncertain. Germany expects at the earliest opportunity to be provoked into another war by France and grumbles at the large sum voted to the augmentation and improvement of the fortifications around Paris The line of forts is to cover all the ground occupied by the Germans during the siege of 1870–1 It is curious to compare this gigantic system of military circumvallation with the entire unprotectedness of London, which has not even a solitary fort, and is accessible to war steamers up the Thames There are only a few eminences in the vicinity of London—Highgate and the Surrey Hills, but Paris, built in a valley is nearly surrounded by heights, which form the best sites for forts The insular condition of England has been a better protection to London than any fortifications On the other hand, if the Germans had waited for the French invasion in 1870, Berlin, situated on a dreary sand-plain, had no fortifications to give passive resistance to an attack. That stone walls and ordnance do not render a city impregnable against determined valor was proven by the Germans at Paris in the recent war.

The President has appointed Brevet Major General Andrew A Humphreys, of the Engineer Corps, U S A, Professor Benjamin Pierce, of Massachusetts, and Captain Daniel Ammen, U S N, and chief of the Navigation Bureau, to be commissioners of the United States to examine and consider all surveys, plans, proposals or suggestions of routes or communication by canal or water connection between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, across, over, or near the Isthmus of Darien, which have already been submitted or may be hereafter submitted to the President during the pendency of this appointment, or which may be referred to them by the President, and to report in writing their conclusions and the result of such examination to the President

The Oriflamme will sail from San Francisco for Portland to-morrow Saturday at 11 A M

The steamer Idaho from San Francisco with freight [illegible] Saturday afternoon

The bark Sparkling [illegible] has about finished discharging [illegible] and will sail for the 22d inst

[illegible]

The following vessels are on the way to this port from New York

American ship A M Small Parker master [illegible] 84 [illegible] days from port

American bark Ceres Phinney master 594 tons [illegible] days

American ship [illegible] master 1[illegible] tons [illegible]

San Francisco [illegible] dates are March 20 Trade was [illegible] Coal—Anthracite and [illegible] small supply Sugars—Little prospect of a rise in Refined [illegible] The California Sugar Refinery is doubling its working capacity and its daily product will [illegible] Grain Bags—500 000 Standard Burlap sold to [illegible] arrive at [illegible] Spirits—Market excessively dull for all descriptions Bacon—Eastern sold to arrive, 10½@11c Hams 16@16½c Several car loads of Iowa Hogs have been received by rail and sold at 8c on foot Butter [illegible] has been sent East by way of [illegible] Eastern Butter is also being received by [illegible]

The New York [illegible] of March 15th has an article [illegible] probable course of the Wool market during the next few months It says

[illegible] Add allowances for unmerchantable Wool and buying expenses and freight and we have 85c as the cost on arrival to market Our manufacturing friends who are so frequently inquiring what the price of Wool will be at the clip may safely calculate that unless some great change occurs in the Wool markets of Europe their supply of domestic Wool will not stand them in at clipping time anything less than the above figures which we hereby place on record viz Ohio fleeces 85c Michigan do 82c New York State do 80c California, free of burr, 60c Texas do 60c In this figuring we have made no account of the possible and excitement that may prevail at clipping time

A very important [illegible] to the business of Portland would be a telegraph line to Astoria It is wanted to [illegible] The long without it has long been felt We understand that the Superintendent of the Western Union estimates the cost of constructing a line from Monticello to Astoria at $10 000 But the cost of constructing and operating the line could not be reimbursed by receipts, and the Company therefore cannot yet undertake the enterprise We feel confident that among the business men of Portland who have an interest in this matter a subscription could be raised which would induce the Company to construct the line Astoria also would probably do something for it It seems not improbable that a proposition could be presented to the Telegraph Company which would be entertained

Rain was wanted in some of the upper parts of the Wallamet valley and the showers of last night and today will be most beneficial

Ordinance No. 1145

AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE USE OF streets for building purposes and the removal of buildings

The City of Portland does ordain as follows

Section 1. No person or persons shall occupy any portion of any street or sidewalk for the deposit of building material or for the removal of any building or buildings without first obtaining a permit therefor

Section 2. Application for permits shall be in writing and shall specify if for building purposes the name of the street the number of the lot and blocks the size and description of the building to be constructed or if to be repaired the character of the repairs, the space in front of the lot or lots needed and the proposed time for completing the work For the removal of a building the application shall state the number of the lot and blocks upon which the same is situated, the size of the building the number of the lot and block to which it is proposed to remove the same, the route to be taken and the length of time required for such removal

Section 3 Permits shall be issued by the Street Commissioner in conformity with the endorsement upon the application therefor, by the Committee on Streets and Public Property A record thereof shall be kept by the Street Commissioner setting forth in a concise manner, the dates description of property and the objects for which the permit was granted No permit shall be issued for a longer period than thirty days The subject matter of such permit shall be under the supervision of the Street Commissioner

Section 4 The Committee on Streets and Public Property shall endorse upon applications for permits for building purposes the width of that portion of the street to be used (which shall in no case exceed one-half the width of the street) and the date upon which the permit shall expire They may at any time during the progress of the work, require the space occupied to be suitably enclosed and a temporary walk laid around the same, lighted lanterns conspicuously placed on the premises during the night and such other precautions taken to prevent accidents, as they may deem expedient. Upon applications for permits for the removal of buildings the Committee shall endorse the mode and route for such removal and the date upon which the permit will expire together with such restrictions as the public interests may require The Committee may at their discretion require applicants for permits to give security by deposit, or otherwise for any damages that may accrue by carelessness or failure to comply with the provisions of this ordinance No permit shall be granted for the removal of [illegible] within what is known as Fire Limits except as provided by Ordinance No 1[illegible] entitled [illegible]

Section 5 [illegible]

Section 6 [illegible]

Section 7 [illegible]

Section 8 [illegible]

Section 9 Section sixty, of Ordinance No 1[illegible] entitled An Ordinance to prevent and remove obstructions [illegible] streets and sidewalks [illegible] is hereby repealed
